FROM THE BOARDROOM

Members should be aware of the following:

The renovations to the kitchen are completed. This committee congratulates all the volunteers for a job well done.

Renovations of the caretaker's cottage have just been started and most of the work will be undertaken whilst James our caretaker in residence is away from Darwin on holidays. Paul Ho is currently carrying out the duties of caretaker in James' absence.

Approval letters have been received from Minister for Multicultural Affairs for grants for the following:

- a. .Lion Dance Troupe's visit to Alice Springs for 2010-2011
- b. Chung Wah Senior Citizen's Group 2010-2011

Thank you for those contributing details for the applications and preparation of successful submissions by our President, Adam Lowe re the above Grants.

There is a further matter being considered initially by the CWS Building Sub Committee namely 2010-2011 Multicultural Facilities Grant (MCFG) and then depending on what project is decided a submission will be lodged with the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

The Biggest Morning Tea raised $1810.00 with the Hamper Raffle being drawn by our President, Adam Lowe. The winner was Kaitlin Chin and second prize to Betty Chan. Thank you to Melanie and Seniors who organised this successful event.

Lion Dance practice continues every Saturday from 2 pm to 4 pm with Warren and Nathan and helpers. After the general training session those members in the core group are training in preparation for the Bendigo Festival 2011.

From renewal notices received to date for membership it has been noted that members are in favour of the new choice of 1 – 3 year membership concept by making multiple payments.

Proposed Bursary/Award in Memory of William Wong OAM was discussed however at this stage the proposal is subject to further discussion. It is aimed at a member, quiet achiever, volunteering, not necessarily a Committee Member or a Life Member, youth as well as elderly and decided on volunteering achievements of the current year.

Please note that no formal decision has been made on this proposal.

During an attendance by his wife, Daphne, to a Magistrates Conference in Darwin, Dr, Hu Jin Kok, the author of Darwin Temple Book ("Temple of the Ranking Sages") also visited Darwin and took the opportunity to meet with members of the CWS Committee to advise the progress of version 2 of the Book. The new version has updated information and the inclusion of colour images. The Chung Wah Society will be participating in the book's reprint in conjunction with the Golden Dragon Museum of Bendigo.

Welcome to Cacey Lee Small, the new addition to Phil and Kerri Small's family. Cacey was born on 21 June, and is welcomed by his brothers Jaxon and Lukas, and grandmother Lyn Lee.
